

Colorworks™

Empowerment Journal & Pencil Holder Lesson Plan

Grade Level: 1-12

Introduction

Journaling is essential to tapping into one's creativity. Blank pages offer a world of opportunity for sketching, listing ideas and more. But sometimes we can feel stifled to put the pen to the paper. To help get those juices flowing, why not decorate a journal and a pencil cup to hold a variety of writing tools? By using vibrant papers, empowering quotes and storing their favorite writing tools in a colorful holder, students will feel motivated to crack open their journal and get busy!

Educational Objectives

This lesson provides opportunities for students to:

- Learn new visual art vocabulary and use it in the course of the project
- Generate multiple designs with the use of color and collage techniques
- Use multiple instructions to produce a hands-on project
- Understand and apply media, techniques and processes
- Use visual arts in relation to various courses of study
- Research empowering quotes from a variety of sources
- Reflect upon and assess the characteristics and merits of their own work and the work of others
- Make connections between visual arts and other disciplines
- Introduce elements of the lesson topic and translate it into visual form
- Apply the details of the lesson topic to everyday life

Project Closure

Language Arts connection and project closure

- Write and illustrate a brief description of this project; include detailed descriptions of the materials used and what happened during this project.
- What were the favorite elements the student chose for the lesson topic and why? How do these elements inspire them to write?
