

Paper Christmas Tree

*Paper
Christmas
Tree*

ilovetocreateblog.blogspot.com

Paper Christmas Tree

ilovetocreateblog.blogspot.com

Decorating for Christmas is so fun, but it can also get a little pricey. I don't like to spend a lot of money on things that will only be up for a month, so I made this paper Christmas tree for almost nothing.

AN ILOVETOCREATE.COM EXCLUSIVE BY

Cheri Heaton

To make this you'll need:

- some craft paper or cardstock
- Aleene's tacky line rolls or Aleene's tacky dot runner
- fun printed paper

I had some thick brown paper that was on the inside of the wrapping paper roll I had purchased. I rolled it into a cone and taped it.

Then I trimmed off the bottom so it would be even and sit on the table correctly.

Next I cut a whole lot of scallops out of my paper.

I applied the Aleene's tacky line rolls to the paper and removed the plastic backing.

I stuck it to the cone. Now, because the papers were straight and the cone is rounded the top of the paper will be wrinkled when attached to the cone level. It's not a big deal because you'll cover that up with more paper.

I continued up the tree until it was finished. (Tip: As the cone gets smaller it's helpful to use smaller strips of paper to keep them level.)

Make it in any color scheme you like or in any size and you have a fun decoration for almost nothing.

A festive scene featuring a paper Christmas tree on the left, a glass jar with a bird figurine on top, and a stack of three books (yellow, blue, and white) on the right. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. A large, light blue starburst graphic is positioned in the upper right quadrant, containing the title text.

*Paper
Christmas
Tree*

Designed By:

I Am