

DIY Neon Puffy Paint Ornaments

DIY Neon Puffy Paint Ornaments

Margot Potter for iLoveToCreateblog.blogspot.com

DIY Neon Puffy Paint Ornaments

Margot Potter for iLoveToCreateblog.blogspot.com

Here's a super simple DIY holiday ornament that you can whip up in a flash that even the kids can have fun creating. Neon puffy paint makes these bright and cheerful, but you can use holiday colors or glitter paint. I am a big fan of low stress, high impact crafts, how about you?

AN ILOVETOCREATE.COM EXCLUSIVE BY

Margot Potter

You will need:

- Glass or plastic clear ornaments
- Tulip Slick Fabric Paint in Neon Colors
- Wooden dowels or skewers
- foam

You will need:

Clear Glass or Plastic Ornament

Neon Tulip Slick Paint

Remove the caps. Slide the wooden dowels into some foam. Slide ornament on dowel to secure while you work.

Add paint.

Start at the bottom of the ornament squeezing paint in small circles working from the bottom to the top. Leave the ledge that holds the cap unpainted.

Slide ornaments into some foam to secure. Let the ornaments dry overnight.

Make more.

Make more ornaments in different colors!

Make even more.

No stress, no mess. That's my kind of crafting.

DIY Neon
Puffy Paint
Ornaments

Margot Potter for iLoveToCreateblog.blogspot.com

Join the crafty conversation on our Facebook page. Visit me at DIY Doyenne for your daily dose of DIY style.

Cheers,

Margot

follow us on

Pinterest

Designed By:
Margot Potter