

DIY Glitter Dough Ornament for Christmas

Is there anything quite so memorable as making your own dough ornaments during Christmas? I don't believe so! This DIY Glitter Dough Ornament is really easy to make for your own enjoyment or as an activity with kids. Just mix one part Aleene's Tacky Glue with two parts baking soda, roll out on a hard surface, and create shapes with cookie cutters. Once dry, you can assemble, paint, and/or add glitter to the ornament. There are so many ways to customize this tutorial to make all your own!
