

How to Paint Typographic Rainbow Embroidery Hoop Art

Embroidery hoops aren't just for embroidery anymore! Use fabric inside of an embroidery hoop as a canvas to create beautiful typographic art with Tulip Dimensional Fabric Paints. This rainbow typographic art is easy to make with a variety of colors thanks to the paints' precision tip. Then you can display it on a shelf or hang it on your wall like any other piece of art!

Instructions:

Step 1: Insert a piece of fabric into the embroidery hoop and pull taught.

Step 2: Draw out your design in pencil first. In this case, you'll see I planned it out so that each line of text uses a different color.

Step 3: Starting at the top of the design, trace the pencil with the first color of Tulip Dimensional Fabric Paint. Continue down the hoop, changing colors as desired.

Set aside to dry for at least one hour.

Step 4: Cut away the excess fabric from the sides of the hoop.

Now you can hang it directly from the hoop or display on a shelf.
